ABOUT US + I SPY GAME

A FAULKNER FAMILY CHRISTMAS HUNT
There's more to JOLLY than meets the eye! Look around, explore the details, and see how many of these special Christmas treasures you can spot. From Faulkner family traditions to country music legends, every find has a story. How many can you spy?

1. AUNT JUDY'S WINNING TREE
Find Aunt Judy's horse show ribbons, her signature hat, and photo ornaments celebrating her horse show days with her horse Pepper X. Those ribbons weren't just for decoration!

2. THE VINTAGE TREE SKIRT
Look for the handmade red and green Christmas tree skirt crocheted by Grandma Cindy. For Matt and Christine, it was the signal that Christmas had officially begun! Santa still stops at Bob's house and stuffs Matt and Christy's matching stockings crocheted by their Grandma as a fun tradition.

3. WOODY, OUR JOLLY ELF
He's watching! Find Woody, our resident Elf on the Shelf. We can't promise he's reporting good behavior to Santa.

4. MARILYN'S COWBOY SANTA
Keep an eye out for our very own Cowboy Santa! This JOLLY mascot originated with Marilyn Faulkner as a way to entertain the grandkids at Christmas time. Today the Cowboy Santa watches over Jolly as an angel in Marilyn's memory and her love for Christmas and her family.

5. THE CHRISTMAS PICKLE
Can you find the hidden pickle? This old Christmas tradition says the first person to spot it earns good luck for the year. Consider yourself officially on the hunt!

6. DOLLY'S HOLIDAY HALO
Find the tree dedicated to the Queen of Country herself! Complete with butterfly angel wings and a halo, this one is a little slice of Dolly heaven.

7. TAYLOR'S CHRISTMAS ERA
Find our Taylor Swift-inspired tree. Look closely for the details that celebrate everyone's favorite pop superstar. Also be sure to ask your server about our secret 13th drink!

8. BOOTS, HATS & JEANS
Find the original Faulkner's Western Wear store department signs! Before the Ranch, there was Faulkner's Western Wear, a family business that outfitted Kansas City cowboys for more than 30 years. Be sure to let your server know if you are an old customer of Faulkner's Western Wear.

9. THE COUNTRY MUSIC LEGENDS
Spot the classic country music artwork featuring some of the greats, including Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson, Brooks & Dunn, and Randy Travis. Bob and Marilyn Faulkner leased the Benjamin Ranch for 25 years and that's where the events business started. During that time they collected many fun artifacts like the artwork on display of these classic country legends.

A LITTLE FAULKNER FAMILY HISTORY
The Faulkner family has been part of the Kansas City community since the 1950s, beginning with Faulkner's Western Wear. Today, that same family spirit lives on at Faulkner's Ranch, where we believe the best memories are made when family, friends, and fun come together.

Thanks for making JOLLY part of your Christmas tradition! You Gather the Guests. We Take Care of the Rest.
