ABOUT US I SPY GAME

The Faulkner Family has been doing business in South Kansas City for over 60 years starting with Faulkner's Western Wear Store in the 1950s. There are several artifacts from the Faulkner Family history that have been used in the JOLLY decor. See if you can find the items below:

VINTAGE SANTA CLAUS

Was used in the front window Christmas display at the Western Wear store. The family would decorate the entire store to get their retail holiday shoppers into the Christmas buying spirit!

BOOTS, HATS, JEANS, AND CUSTOM CHAPS SIGNAGE

Faulkner's had many departments and these are the signs that hung in each department of the store. Mary Faulkner could often be found measuring a customer for custom chaps in the front of the store while her son Bob known as the "hat doctor" was in the back of the store steaming Stetson's. Faulkner's sold truckloads of cowboy boots and hats over its 30 year span in the business. This is where former Kansas City Royal, George Brett bought his boots! They had several locations but the last was 87th and Troost. Be sure to let your server know if you are an old customer of Faulkner's Western Wear!

AUNT JUDY'S HORSE SHOW RIBBONS AND HAT

When Judy Faulkner wasn't working in the store she could be found in the show ring at the American Royal and Saddle and Sirloin. The Ribbons on the tree were won by her on her horse Pepper X. Judy had many beautiful parade suits and outfits for horse showing, including her hat on top of the tree. If you look close you can see photos of her back in the days of horse showing and working in store along side her family on the tree ornaments.

UNCLE DICK'S HORSE

After Faulkner's Western Wear store closed in the late 80's Dick Faulkner started Faulkner's Saddlery selling tack and custom show halters. Today his daughter owns the business and continues to ship Arabian show halters worldwide. This horse was made to look like a specific winning Arabian horse and was used as a model at horse shows across the country! The horse's name is Shakirah and no, you may not climb on it. :)

DICK AND BOB'S LEATHER SLEIGH BELLS

This is one of the first items that Faulkner's Saddlery manufactured. Made from harness leather and adorned with bells from the same foundry that forged the Liberty Bell. They were of the finest quality and the two brothers made and shipped thousands to retail stores across the country in the late 80s. Fun fact: These are also the sleigh bells that some unknown family member would run around the outside of Matt and Christine's house on Christmas Eve sending them flying to bed because Santa was near!

CLASSIC COUNTRY MUSIC SINGERS ARTWORK

The Benjamin and Faulkner families go back generations. Faulkner's Western Wear sponsored the Annual 4th of July Rodeo at Benjamin Ranch in the 1960s and 70s. When the Western Wear store closed, Bob and Marilyn Faulkner worked out a deal to lease the Benjamin Ranch where they started and ran their event business for 25 years. During that time they collected many fun artifacts like the artwork on display of the classic Country Singers Alan Jackson, Brooks and Dunn, Garth Brooks, Randy Travis.

LEGEND OF THE PICKLE

Some people think this originated in Germany. We could not confirm that, but parents hung the pickle last after all the other ornaments were in place. In the morning they knew the most observant child would receive an extra gift from St. Nicholas. The first adult who finds the pickle traditionally gets good luck for the whole year."

Be part of Faulkner's Pickle Christmas Tree Tradition...be the first to find the hidden pickle ornament inside JOLLY!

ELF ON A SHELF

The elf on the shelf is Santa's—known as St. Nick's—best friend. This story describes how Santa's "scout elves" hide in people's homes to watch over events. Once everyone goes to bed, the scout elf flies back to the North Pole to report to Santa the activities, good and bad, that have taken place throughout the day. Try to find "Woody" JOLLY Elf on a Shelf... he will be watching you to see if you are being naughty or nice!
